

Bank Robbery with Arrest

On May 12, 2017 at approximately 1200 noon officers from Southern Regional Police responded to a bank robbery that occurred at the People's Bank on E Main St in New Freedom Borough. Employees of the bank provided detailed descriptions of the suspect and the fleeing vehicle. Within 2 minutes officers from Southern Regional Police Department located the suspect vehicle on Miller Park Dr in Shrewsbury Township. The suspect was behind the vehicle actively switching out a stolen Pennsylvania registration plate with a Maryland registration plate. The male and female suspects were taken into custody. During the investigation the female was found to be in possession of a stolen bag of cash concealed in her underwear. The offenders were identified as AARON ORNSTEIN age 53 and ANDREA MARTIN age 36, both of Edgewood Maryland. In addition to robbery and felony theft charges, both offenders were charged with tampering with physical evidence and possession of stolen property for having the stolen Pennsylvania license plate. ORNSTEIN was additionally charged with institutional vandalism. While in custody at the police station, he urinated on the holding cell floor and removed bolts from the cell bench placing pieces into the floor drain. ORNSTEIN and MARTIN were taken to central booking and arraigned by the Duty Judge. AARON ORNSTEIN was arraigned and committed to York County Prison on No Bail. ANDREA MARTIN was committed to York County Prison in lieu of $1,000,000 Bail.
